EMERGENCY RESPONSE ORGANIZATION

CAMPUS EMERGENCY RESPONSE ORGANIZATION
Organization and Reporting Structure

The Citadel’s organizational structure during an emergency response may not resemble its day-today operations. Employees may report to individuals to whom they do not ordinarily report. Furthermore, if the severity of an emergency increases, assignments may adjust within the organizational structure, changing an employee’s position during the course of a single event.

The Citadel’s emergency response organization incorporates four primary areas of operation:

- Emergency first responders (e.g., Campus Public Safety)
- Policy Committee (Emergency Council/Crisis Management Team)
- Emergency Operations Center (EOC)
- Functional Support Teams

Note: links to campus emergency response planning documents located at: http://www.bulldogalert.info/root/campus-emergency-response-plan.html

During a serious campus emergency, many Citadel employees will be temporarily assigned to perform various emergency response-related duties that fall within one or more of these primary areas of response operations.

This guide summarizes key activities and duties of the campus Emergency Operations Center (EOC) Management Team.

EOC Management Team:

A fundamental component to the success of the college’s emergency response efforts is an understanding of the EOC’s organizational structure. The EOC Management Team serves as the tactical arm of the college’s emergency management Policy Committee.

In its role, The EOC Management Team creates plans to implement the strategies developed by the Policy Committee, evaluates the incident as it unfolds, and further enhances strategies for an effective response.

Secondly, the EOC Management Team is the primary group that gathers information from various elements and seeks to understand the scope and direction of the emergency. This effort includes serving as the single point of contact and support for field emergency response operations (e.g., Public Safety, Charleston Police/Fire Department, Charleston County EMS).

Incident Commander: The Incident Commander (IC) or the Unified Command (UC) is responsible for all aspects of the response, including developing incident objectives and managing all incident operations. The IC (or UC) is assigned by virtue of explicit legal, agency, or delegated authority. The IC for any particular campus incident may be a Citadel employee, or a representative from an outside agency, depending upon actual incident requirements and individual qualification/experience.
EOC Director: The EOC Director is appointed by the Policy Committee (or in accordance with established plans) and has overall responsibility for the coordination of campus emergency response and recovery efforts. The EOC Director is responsible for activation of the Campus EOC and ensuring that emergency response functional support sections are activated or deactivated in accordance with incident requirements.

Deputy EOC Director: The Deputy EOC Director’s role is to support the EOC Director. The Deputy EOC Director maintains the schedule of EOC Management Team meetings and acts to ensure members are informed of EOC Director’s expectations or changes in the near-term schedule of EOC Management Team activities. The Deputy EOC Director may act as the primary liaison with the Policy Committee, outside of regularly scheduled briefings/updates.

Liaison Officer: Serves as the primary link for coordination between the Campus EOC and Department/Agency liaisons (internal and external).

Public Information Officer: Serves as the college’s EOC Team representative for communication of information to internal and external stakeholders, including the media or other organizations seeking information about the incident or event.

Incident Safety Officer: Continuously monitors incident for hazardous situations and develops/recommends measures for ensuring health/safety of responders and the public.

Operations Section Chief: Coordinates and supervises activities of response teams and other agencies directly involved with achieving primary response objectives.

Planning Section Chief: Coordinates and supervises the collection, evaluation and dissemination of tactical information related to the incident, and prepares Incident Action Plans (IAP’s) and other key incident documentation.

Logistics Section Chief: Coordinates and supervises the facilities, services, equipment, and materials necessary to support incident response activities and operations.

Finance-Administration Section Chief: Coordinates and supervises the financial, administrative, and cost analysis aspects of emergency incident response.

EOC Staff:

Department Liaisons /Agency Representatives: Ensure coordination of key response and recovery activities, and serve as primary link between the Campus EOC (via Liaison Officer) and their “home” Department Operations Center (DOC).

Medical Unit Leader: Primarily responsible for the development of the incident Medical Plan, obtaining medical care and transportation for injured and ill incident personnel, coordinating with medical control/regulatory offices, and the preparation of associated reports and records.
Facilities Unit Leader: Primarily responsible for the layout and activation of incident facilities, (e.g., bases, camps, meeting rooms, and the Incident Command Post/EOC). The Facilities Unit Leader provides sleeping and sanitation facilities for incident personnel and manages facility operations.

Procurement Unit Leader: Primarily responsible for administering all matters pertaining to resource purchasing, vendor contracts, leases, and fiscal agreements.

Information Technology Unit Leader: Primarily responsible for ensuring the EOC Team and other response teams are supported via available technology. In addition, the IT Unit Leader will provide status updates on college IT systems impacted by the emergency, and will coordinate IT-related response/recovery activities.

Security Manager: Primarily responsible for implementing EOC access control and providing safeguards necessary to protect personnel and property from loss or damage.

Other EOC Staff: Additional incident operations or EOC support staff may be required depending upon incident scope and complexity. The Incident Commander, EOC Director, or General Staff Section Chiefs may request activation of additional staff positions at any point during an incident response. Requests for additional staff support will be routed to appropriate Department/Agency DOC via EOC liaisons.
